Healthy Respect Scholarship For Non-Traditional Students

Healthy Respect is once again giving students a chance to win scholarships.

Are you a non-traditional student? Perhaps you are returning to college after working. Perhaps you were home schooled, received a GED instead of a traditional high school diploma, are transferring, or even moving to a four year college from a two year college. If you are one of the many students who did not graduate from high school and go directly to a four year college, this scholarship is for you.

Tell us how being a non-traditional student has influenced your life in 500 words or less.

Amount: $1000

Deadline: June 30, 2011 for completion of all required steps. Please apply early to allow ample time to qualify.

Eligibility: Any student who is classified as a non-traditional student and is currently not enrolled in college and plans on attending a college or university in the United States.

Judging: Neither merit nor financial need will be considered. The award will be based solely on completion of all required steps. All participants for this scholarship will be invited to attend an online college information session designed for non-traditional students. There is no cost to attend this information session and attendance is not mandatory to win.
